

The university is working efficiently under the leadership of Hon'ble Chancellor of U.P. The university is one of the premier institutions that organize various programmes/events regarding gender equity. The university focuses on fairness and justice to ensure equal participation and representation of both men and women at all levels of academic and administrative pursuits. The university has a total of 19.33% female teachers and most of them have been given the administrative and other responsibilities. Better discipline and safe environment have led to increase the number of girl students every year and the university is becoming a choice for girls. Women study centers and Gender committee are working efficiently. Girls' liberties are not curtailed in any way. There is no sexism or bias among the university's faculty or personnel. The university also supports the admission of transgender students and organizes various programme and need-based activities for transgender.

Safety and security

Security is the priority of the university for everyone residing in the campus especially for women and girls. The university ensures safety and security in the colleges, hostels, canteens etc. through its efficiently working Anti-Ragging Cell, Internal Complaint Committee, Prevention of Women Harassment Cell and Student Grievance Redressal Cell. The CCTV cameras have been installed for round the clock surveillance in the constituent units (colleges), hostels and important places in the university campus. Identity cards are being issued to the students and staff to prevent the entry of outsiders into the university premises, libraries etc. Girls' students are allowed to leave the hostel for classes and other important work from 7.30 AM to 5.30 PM and encouraged for their presence in the university campus. In emergency/urgent situation, hostel warden or any female teaching staff assists the girl students. Any engagement before or after the prescribed time is strictly prohibited. During study tours or the university fests, at least one lady staff accompanies girl students. We care each and every student and staff regarding safety and security.

Counselling

Orientation programmes bridges the gap between the teachers and the students, ensuring a smooth communication between the two. To ensure the gender equity, the university conducts orientation programmes for all the students regularly especially for newly admitted first year students. Advisor/Mentor is allotted to every student for regular counseling on this aspect. A women study center has been established in the University for Regular Counselling of the women on different issues. Invited guest lectures are also delivered by the resource female experts to the rural women.

Common room

Most of the offices of the university have common room facilities for girl students and women staff. These rooms are provided with basic amenities such as sitting and resting furniture, fans and lights. Administrative building, all constituent units' buildings, departmental blocks, seminar and conference halls, auditoriums, and sports complexes have separate toilet blocks for ladies and gents.

Daycare center for young children

The daycare center for young children has been established in the constituent units for wards of the university employees.
