7.1.6. Report on environmental promotional activities conducted beyond the campus

The university always encourages the environmental promotional activities for healthy environment. The environmental promotional activities of the university includes creating awareness on protection of the environment, delivering lectures on environmental protection, organizing seminars, celebration of the World Environment Day, executing plantation drives, maintaining the biodiversity by keeping the environment healthy etc. The university also conducts cleaning drives under "Swachh Bharat Abhiyan" from time to time. The university always promotes and adopts the environment-friendly activities.

Environmental promotional activities are conducted regularly to protect and preserve the environment. The university organizes awareness programmes in villages to create awareness among villagers regarding environmental health and its sustainability, and its importance in our life. Plantation drive is executed in the university campus, Krishi Vigyan Kendras of the university, and off the campus that is in the villages. The faculty, staff and students are encouraged to participate in the environmental promotional activities.

Under 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan' the events such as poster presentation, slogan competitions, essay writing and speeches are regularly organized. Rallies on the theme of 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan' are also conducted to create mass awareness. Plantation drive is regularly executed in the university campus, Krishi Vigyan Kendras (KVKs), Crop Research Stations (CRSs), other units of the university and also in villages of eastern Uttar Pradesh. The environmental promotional activities of the university are as follows:
